

Children's Classes

(7-12 yrs)

People in Paper with Angela Hanuse

Date: Wednesdays, Mar 7-28

Time: 3:30 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Members: $35; Non-members: $45

Paper products are used everywhere in our lives – newspapers, books, and paper towels to name a few. It's also a great tool for art making. Angela will teach you to create characters with different forms of paper and papier maché. Bring your ideas, creativity, and learn how to make your materials into cool people & characters!

Fun Landscapes with Nathan Birch

Date: Tuesdays, April 3 – 24 (4 sessions)

Time: 3:30 p.m. – 5:00 pm

Members: $35; Non-members: $45

Learn the elements of landscape painting and explore all the ways to depict the world around you! Nathan will teach you techniques that professional artists use to create landscape paintings including perspective, color, and proportion. In addition, the depiction of specific objects such as rocks, waves, and trees will be studied and practiced. Think about your favorite outdoor scenes and then bring them to life in this exciting class!

One Day Kids' Animation Workshop with Fred Jiles

Date: Wednesday, April 4 (1 session)

Time: 1 – 5 p.m.

Members: $30; Non-members: $40

This animation workshop for 8 -12 year-olds will take participants from the initial scripting of a story idea through two-dimensional construction including audio and special effects, and finally, to the three-dimensional medium. Perfect for all those young artists who enjoy being creative with a laptop while still developing fine art skills. Space is limited to 12 students so be sure to sign up early!

Spring Art Fling with Kathi Rudko

Date: Tuesdays, May 8 – 29 (4 sessions)

Time: 3:30 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Members: $35 Non-members: $45

Take a look at spring with an artist's eye! This fun class will explore creating art from "life": still life and 'au plein air' (working outdoors) with garden and nature themes such as flowers, shells, insect life, seascapes and beachscapes. We will use various media (conté, pastel, watercolour and acrylic paints) to develop drawing and painting skills.

Meet New Instructor Nathan Birch

Nathan Birch was born in Lansing, Michigan, moved to Canada at an early age and was raised in Edmonton, Alberta. After earning his BFA at the Alberta College of Art and Design in Calgary, he began to actively pursue his artistic goals through painting the landscapes of the places he has lived: the Alberta Prairies, the Rocky Mountains and the West Coast of British Columbia. His work is represented by galleries across Canada and can be found in both private and corporate collections around the world.
